Product description:

The C-Type Padlock for Chains or Cables provides strong, reliable security. It includes five advanced security keys for enhanced protection.

The C-Type Padlock accommodates all SAS chains, making it versatile and practical. The shackle pin rotates to stop cutting attempts by any type of saw. The solid steel construction of the C-Type Padlock guarantees long-lasting strength and toughness.

The brass locking cylinder prevents rust and corrosion, ensuring smooth operation and durability of the padlock for chains and cables even in harsh weather. Together, these features make the C-Type padlock a dependable choice for your security needs.
